

Amplify Your Impact

Language Goals for Emotional Literacy and Inclusive Restorative Practices

Lewes Elementary School
Professional Development 1.26.24

Restorative Practices: Science of relationships and community. Communication practices to grow and repair relationships. Alternative to traditional discipline.

Affective Statements: Expression of emotions in response to behavior without assigning shame or blame.

Accessible Affective Statements (Busting a FAB)

Use a sentence frame and word banks to concisely express feelings and needs.

"I Feel __ About __ Because I need __."

Wonder FABs: Consider someone else's perspective by thinking or saying, "I wonder if you Feel __ About __ Because you need __?"

Looping: After empathic listening, ensure understanding by repeating what you heard someone say.

"I heard you say you Feel __ About __ Because you need __. Did I understand?"

Empathic Listening: Listening to others at the level of feelings (spoken or unspoken) in addition to the words they are saying.

Free word banks and IEP Goal Bank @ LearningTreeLiteracy.org/resources

Curiosities? Ideas? Please share! stacey@learningtreeliteracy.org

NOTES:

Clarify and express your experience with a FAB: “I Feel __ About __ Because I need __.”

Pleasant Emotions		Unpleasant Emotions
Curious Interested	Excited, Enthusiastic Energetic, Eager	Angry, Mad Furious, Upset	Confused, Puzzled Mixed Up, Unsure
Thankful Grateful	Playful Exuberant	Worried Scared, Afraid	Tense, Unsettled Concerned
Friendly, Loving Tender, Warm	Happy, Glad Delighted, Cheerful	Frustrated Discouraged	Sad, Unhappy Disappointed
Peaceful, Content Calm, Relaxed	Surprised, Shocked (Pleasant)	Lonely	Surprised, Shocked (Unpleasant)
Other		Other

Universal Human Needs
Capability, Skills Competence	Choice, Autonomy Freedom	Community, Friends Belonging	Giving Sharing
Help Support	Learning Exploration, Discovery	Play Fun	Respect, To matter To be considered
Rest Relaxation	Safety Trust	Self-expression Creativity	To be heard To be understood
Self-empathy Understanding Me	Empathy Understanding Others	Predictability Routine	Other

Scan to access free tools.

Busting a FAB

“I Feel ___ About ___ Because I need ___.”

Busting a FAB means expressing my emotions and needs with words. Every person has emotions. All emotions are okay! We feel emotions in our bodies. Emotions are temporary – they come and go like clouds in the sky.

Pleasant Emotions		Unpleasant Emotions		Universal Human Needs
Curious Interested	Excited, Enthusiastic Energetic, Eager	Angry, Mad Furious, Upset	Confused, Puzzled Mixed Up, Unsure	Capability, Skills Competence	Choice, Autonomy Freedom	Community Friends, Belonging	Giving, Sharing
Thankful Grateful	Playful Exuberant	Worried Scared, Afraid	Tense, Unsettled Concerned	Help, Support	Learning, Discovery Exploration	Play, Fun	Respect, To matter To be considered
Friendly, Loving Tender, Warm	Happy, Glad Delighted, Cheerful	Frustrated Discouraged	Sad, Unhappy Disappointed	Rest, Relaxation	Safety, Trust	Self-expression Creativity	To be heard To be understood
Peaceful, Content Calm, Relaxed	Surprised, Shocked (Pleasant)	Lonely	Surprised, Shocked (Unpleasant)	Understanding Me Self-empathy	Understanding Others, Empathy	Predictability Routine	Other
Other		Other

FAB is an abbreviation for “I Feel ___ About ___ Because I need ___.” Word banks are tools to help me find words to create my FAB. Naming my emotions gives me clues about my human needs. Every person has needs.

If I feel a pleasant emotion,
then my needs are being met.

I feel curious and eager about reader’s theater because it meets my needs for creativity and self-expression.

If I feel an unpleasant emotion,
then my needs are being blocked.

I feel worried and frustrated about reading aloud because it blocks my need for capability and choice.

I can bust a FAB to:

- Learn how I feel about something and identify what I need
- Name it to tame it, or calm myself down when I have big feelings
- Tell someone my FAB so they better understand me
- Listen to someone else’s FAB so I better understand them